From the Desk of Fr. Mike

Dear Friends,

Last week, we welcomed Fr. Bala who came to us from India on behalf of the Sisters of the Holy Spirit. It was kind of funny. After he landed in the airport, he called us to see about his accommodations. None of us at St. Joe's or St. Vincent's knew he was coming! My best guess is that Fr. Rodriguez had worked out this weekend long ago but forgot to get it on the parish calendar. Sounds like something I would do! Like so many people, the daily life of a priest is ridiculously busy. In any event, Deacon Tom had already written his homily so Fr. Bala was kind enough to say some words at the end of the Masses. We will take up a second collection for the Sisters of the Holy Spirit today.

Each year, the diocese asks each parish to host two groups of missionaries—one group of men religious and one group of women religious. This is, I believe, a good thing. It reminds us that the Catholic Church is bigger than "just us," and it reminds us that the work of the larger Church depends upon all of us. It is amazing to consider all the things our Church is doing in the world. There are thousands of religious orders—like the Sisters of the Holy Spirit—and tons and tons of parishes and other Catholic organizations around the world. We belong to something very special: the body of Christ!

I am happy to announce that RCIA went beautifully last week. We have many people interested in the Catholic faith. It is not too late to bring more people in. Just let Sr. Joan or me know.

Some things coming up:

- October 4th is the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi, a favorite of Sr. Joan's! Of course, St. Francis is the patron of animals. There is a happy tradition in the Church to do a pet blessing on the nearest Sunday. St. Joe's and St. V's will have a joint pet blessing on Sunday, October 1st at 6:00 p.m. It will take place at St. Joe's by the basketball court. Our Youth Group will be helping.
- Don't forget about the Annual Catholic Men's Conference. I am the emcee of the annual Catholic Men's Conference. It takes place September 30th. I encourage all men to come. Next year we will organize a group to go. I'm afraid I just got too busy to organize a group this year. But all men are welcome. Bring your sons! Wives: you might help encourage your husband to go!! More info and registration <http://mariancenterofindiamapolis.com/mensconference/>

- Remember also that our first annual Octoberfest is Friday, September 29th. Live music, beer, brats, activities for the kids. It will be so awesome!!!! Bring a friend—or a whole bunch of them.
- First Friday is Friday, October 6th. We will have a bilingual Mass at 6:00 p.m. with devotions and confessions afterwards. More details next week.
- A Men's Retreat will take place at St. Meinrad for our parishes December 8th and 9th. Deacon Tom and I will be leading the retreat, but we will have talks from a seminarian and a monk. It will be a wonderful trip, a time for rest and relaxation, fraternity and growth. Cost is $110 for lodging and food. Please call the parish office to sign up, or email frmike@sjsshelbyville.org. Let Deacon Tom or me know if you have any questions.
- Confirmation Mass is this Wednesday, September 27th at 7:00 p.m. at SS Peter and Paul Cathedral. Everyone in the parish is welcome! We have 19 young men and women being confirmed this year.

Lastly, I spoke with Fr. Rodriquez last week! I am happy to let you know that he is returning to active priestly ministry. He will be assigned at St. Lawrence starting soon. He has written a letter to all of us, and that is located on the last page of the bulletin. Let us keep him in our prayers!

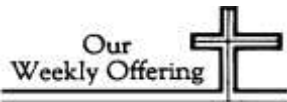

My prayers and love!
Fr. Mike

St. Joseph's Lending Library

"Wisdom shines bright and never fades...by those who seek her she is found. Wisdom 6:12"

Catholicism has a more far-reaching literary tradition than any other faith! The knowledge and inspiration that books offer unites and inspires us to be informed and reflective Catholic Christians. Fr. Mike invites each of us to enrich our faith by adding reading to our prayer time. To that end, St. Joseph now has a small lending library located near the stairs to the cafeteria. Take a look and choose a book or two to read and return. You will find books of interest on quite a few topics, and we will be adding to the collection. You can help the selection grow by donating faith-based books, audio-books and Christian DVD's. Please place donated and returned items in the canvas cube next to the bookshelf. We hope you will enjoy the library and thank you for your support.

Sr. Joan's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

Laborers who work all day receive the same wage as those who work one hour. This is not fair! But, one way to look at this story is that the vineyard owner is God. The wage has nothing to do with money. The "daily wage" Jesus is talking about is Heaven. Perhaps it seems unfair that God's Mercy and offer of Heaven is not based on merit. In other words, we don't earn Heaven; it is God's free gift.

The problem with the laborers who complained is that they think the vineyard owner owes them something. They are working for themselves not for the vineyard owner. That is why they are last, not first. God's people are meant to work for God and not for what they will get for themselves. What God gives to people who work in this way is gift. It isn't deserved payment. The gift is God Himself. There is no greater reward than this and joy is the only right response to the gift. This week as you take time to talk to God, think about why you are doing all the good things you are doing. Are you trying to earn Heaven? Or are you doing them for the love of God?

St. Joseph/St. Vincent News

Letter from Fr. Rodriguez

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I continue to give thanks to God for my time with you in Shelbyville. I still remember you in my prayers and I feel encouraged that many of you still remember me in your daily prayers. I have missed you all so much.

My time in St. Joseph and St. Vincent was filled with countless blessings and I am sure Fr. Mike has had a taste of those blessings already. This was my first assignment as a pastor and I am grateful for your patience and tolerance as I navigated this experience with you. I am also thankful to the Archbishop for giving me time away to learn more about myself, God, the priesthood and so many other wonderful things.

Perhaps some of you still ask and speculate why I left. This has a rather simple answer: I needed it and I needed humility to accept that I had to deal with some unresolved issues that started before I even arrived to Shelbyville. I regret not working them earlier, and I apologize that many of you felt hurt and confused about my decision. But on the other hand, I am glad that so many of you supported me and now that I am back in ministry I will take what I learned from you, my first parish, into my new assignment.

Now, Archbishop Thompson has assigned me as the associate pastor of St. Lawrence parish in Indianapolis. That is where the Lord is leading me, and as I transition over there, I have no doubt you will support Fr. Mike as much as you supported me.

Please know of my prayers for you and I hope Our Blessed Mother keeps you in Her Immaculate Heart.

Sincerely,
Fr. Martin Rodriguez
