From the Desk of Fr. Mike

Dear Friends,

It's time to count some graces –

1. St. Joe Feast last weekend was AWESOME. I absolutely LOVED having 20 servers for the procession and 5:00 p.m. Mass. Lots of people came out for the games and they were lots of fun. The Hispanic Dinner after Mass was incredibly delicious. And the Flying Toasters were amazing. I stayed until the last song and it was wonderful. All in all, we raised a good amount of money. But it isn't really about the money. It's about celebrating our family here at St. Joe. Thanks to all who came out. To those who did not: I hope to see you there next year.
2. St. Joe First Communion Retreat – It was such a great time last Saturday! We have some wonderful kids in preparation for First Communion. Their hearts are so big for Jesus and it makes me happy. For St. Joe kids, First Communion will take place on April 22nd at 3:00 p.m. For St. Vincent kids, it's that same day during the 8:45 a.m. Mass. I can't wait!!
3. K of C Men's Retreat – Another success. So many great men came together and grew in the Lord.
4. MANY people are interested in helping with Habitat for Humanity! There is no doubt we can make this work.
5. Youth group – I'm so happy about how well it's going. Great turnout last weekend.
6. St. Joe Show – Coming along. The Show is tomorrow. I'm happy that we ran out of tickets, but sorry that not everyone can come who wants to. It will be a hit!!!
7. I've had several people come in lately to talk about coming back to the faith and/or to our parish. Let's continue to invite folks. An invitation goes a long ways.

Our lives are filled with graces. Have you counted yours lately? Be watchful – sometimes our graces look like the cross.

When you come into Church this weekend, you will notice that the statues are covered. The 5th week of Lent until the Triduum is known as Passiontide. During these last days of Lent, we are to keep our hearts and souls united to the Lord in His Passion. Statues are veiled to help us realize what it would be like to NOT have the the fruits of the Passion and Resurrection of Jesus. If our Lord had not died and rose from the grave; there would be no saints, no images of the passion, no images of the sacred heart. The crosses/crucifixes and images of our Lord's Passion will be unveiled at the celebration of our Lord's Passion on Good Friday. The other images of the saints and images of our resurrected Lord remain veiled until the beginning of the Easter Vigil.

My prayers and love!
Fr. Mike

Sr. Joan's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

The Gospel declares that, "Jesus loved Martha and Mary her sister and their brother Lazarus." This statement tells us so much about Jesus and his personal friendships. But it also makes us wonder why Jesus did not go when he received word about Lazarus' illness. He was only a short distance away. His reason, "This illness is not going to end in death." But, Lazarus did die! And after four days Jesus arrived at Bethany. Mary and Martha were grieved and disappointed in Jesus. "If you had been here, my brother would not have died!" When Jesus saw Mary's tears, the Gospel says, "Jesus wept." This reaction makes us wonder even more, why didn't he come sooner? He loved Martha, Mary and Lazarus. Why didn't he come and cure him before he died? I think many of us ask God some form of this same question when a loved one dies. Jesus answered that question when he called Lazarus forth from the tomb. Life came from death. It is as if Jesus says to us, you always think of love as what you have because you have life. But the opposite is true. Life is something you can have only because you are rooted in love. Death does not erase love, it brings you more deeply back into it, to the place you came from—from love. Pray about this. Jesus says, that is the reason I delayed going to Bethany.

Sr. Joan

We joyfully share our gifts to nourish the community. ---- St. Vincent Purpose Statement
