From the Desk of Fr. Mike

Dear Friends,

So many things are happening...praise God! First, congrats to our Second Graders who made their First Confession last Tuesday. They did such a great job!

Please note that, from now on, there will be a Notes Section in every bulletin. Please feel free to take notes during Mass, especially the readings and the homily. This helps people remember the things that move them at Mass. Thanks to Deacon Tom and his book study for offering this great idea!

Cemetery service - Remember that the service for our beloved dead will take place at the crucifix at St. Joe Cemetery this Sunday at 3:00 p.m. We will start with the Divine Mercy Chaplet and then have a prayer service. It is a wonderful way to remember our dead during this Month of All Souls.

Thanks so much for a great reverse raffle last week!! Holy smokes! We raised approximately $50,000. I love events like this that bring our whole parish family together. We are so blessed to have such a great school here and I'm so pleased this event has helped so much.

40 Days for Life ended a few days ago. Thanks to all who participated in our pro-life causes here during these past 40 days.

Please pray for our youth who will be taking part in NCYC this week.

I've got some good priest friends coming to visit this week, from Iowa and Oklahoma. We were best friends in seminary. You may be seeing them at Masses during the week. I continue to thank God for a rectory to house all the guests that come through here.

What a blessing it was for us to host the Jose Franco concert last night. Jose Franco is a famous Mexican singer.

This is Intention Weekend for the Diocesan Annual Campaign. Our parish goal is $56,930.

My prayers and love!
Fr. Mike

Sr. Joan's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

This Sunday's Gospel parable is about the ten women waiting for the Lord. But when the Lord comes, half of them are rejected. As the parable explains, the five were out shopping when the Lord comes, so they are left out. They are the foolish ones. The other five women are the wise ones who are prepared to welcome the Lord. They know the Lord. There are many lessons in this parable that can be pondered. An obvious lesson is that we do not know when the Lord will return for us, so always be prepared. Another lesson is you can't rely on someone else to help you get prepared if you don't try to have a relationship with Jesus yourself. One of my brothers thinks I am going to pray him to heaven. I tell him it doesn't work that way. He has to be a friend of Jesus otherwise Jesus will not recognize him.

What do you think would have happened if the women hadn't left to shop for more oil but had stayed waiting for the Lord? Would the Lord have let them in? This week as you pray, talk to Jesus about how you are preparing for his return. None of us knows the day or the hour. Is Jesus your friend?

Blessing of the Graves

We will have the Blessing of the Graves Prayer Service at St. Joseph Cemetery this Sunday, November 12th at 3:00 p.m. (Divine Mercy Hour!).

November: Month of Prayer for the Faithful Departed

The Church encourages the offering of prayers and Masses for the souls of the faithful departed in Purgatory. At the time of death, the souls of those who are not perfectly cleansed of venial sin or have not atoned for past transgressions are not admitted to the Beatific Vision (what we understand as the clear vision of God granted to those in Heaven). The faithful on earth can assist these souls in Purgatory in attaining the Beatific Vision through their prayers, good works and the offering of Masses.

Please feel free to enroll the names of deceased individuals in the Book of Remembrance, located in St. Joseph's Narthex, next to the list of those who have gone home to the Lord this past year. You may also enroll the names of deceased individuals in the Book of Remembrance Posters at St. Vincent's located on the side walls.

Today's Readings

First Reading — Wisdom is easily discerned by those who love her (Wisdom 6:12-16).

Psalm — My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God (Psalm 63).

Second Reading — Since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have died (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 [13-14]).

Gospel — Stay awake! You know neither the day nor the hour (Matthew 25:1-13).

Church Women United

The 17th Annual Community Thanksgiving Celebration will be held this Sunday, November 12th at the First Presbyterian Church, 124 West Broadway at 2:00 p.m., sponsored by the Church Women United of Shelby County. This event features talented musicians from various Christian Churches in the area along with the Blue River Community Choir and the Presbyterian Choir. Representing St. Joseph Church is Paul Sanders, soloist, accompanied by Carolyn Disser, pianist. There is no admission charge, but a freewill offering will help in the Club's assistance to the local Salvation Army. Following the lovely music there will be time for fellowship and refreshments. This is a fine way to usher in the Thanksgiving Holiday. Bring your family and friends to enjoy the afternoon.
