From the Desk of Fr. Mike

Dear Friends,

Today we thank God for the Daughters of Isabella. They celebrate their 100th anniversary this weekend. We are thankful for them.

As you recall, last weekend we had Sr. Edith with us. Many of you may know that the Archdiocese sends two missionary groups to every parish every year—one female order, and one male order. The Missions Office assigns who goes where and then we're told to work out a date. Sr. Edith is one order we host in 2018. The other comes next weekend. Fr. Richard Nguta will be here to give his appeal. He works with the Church in Africa. Thanks for your hospitality and generosity with these folks. They do important work and need our help.

I'm taking off early this week to lead a pilgrimage to France. Just like the last one I did, this is through the Marian Center in downtown Indy. I probably won't do another one for a couple years. It is hard to be gone, even during the summertime. But I'm excited.

Because of my absence, there will be NO DAILY MASSES this week. I couldn't find a sub. I hate to cancel Masses, but sometimes it is necessary.

Seminarian Owen is giving a talk on Tuesday, July 17th at 7:00 p.m. downstairs called "How to Get More Out of the Mass." Come!

Remember the Lake Monroe Trip is on Tuesday, July 31st. All middle and high school students welcome. Signup is online. The Holiday World trip last week was an awesome success.

Faith Formation registration forms are in the St Joe bulletins this weekend. We look forward to getting the ball rolling...it will be a great year!

My prayers and love!
Fr. Mike

Attention Parishioners

There will not be a daily Mass this week. St. Vincent will have a Communion Service on Monday at 5:00 p.m. and Wednesday at 8:00 a.m.

Ask Seminarian Owen Duckett

Q. What do we call the new seminarian?

A: At my home parish (Holy Rosary in Indianapolis) the parishioners usually refer to me as "Seminarian Owen" so I am comfortable with that if you are looking for a formal title or simply "Owen" in a casual setting.

Q. I see several people leaving Mass early. Is that okay? Karen M

A: Unless a true emergency would present itself (use your best judgment) it is not okay to leave Mass early and to do so is quite frankly a direct insult to our Lord. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is the timeless re-presentation of the very Sacrifice that Christ made for us during His bitter agony and suffering which constitute His Passion. There is an infinite amount of grace available to us at every Mass, and our Lord literally becomes present on the altar under a new substance that is His Precious Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity. The Mass is the greatest prayer of the Church and we were directly instructed by our Lord Himself to celebrate this Sacrifice. If after considering all of that one still feels inclined to simply "grab-and-go" each Sunday and head for the door after receiving Jesus in the Eucharist, then perhaps that person should sit down and seriously examine the nature of his or her relationship with Almighty God and His Holy Church. Leaving Mass early conveys a disinterest and lack of care for the action taking place, an action which directly concerns the salvation of our souls. This is a simple and kind admonishment, not a threat or a way of saying we do not want you at Mass. In fact I do hope that you come to Mass (and stay through its duration) because I want you to go to Heaven. The Mass is the closest thing to Heaven on Earth, the intersection between the Divine and the whole of creation. It is the one place where you can take your week's problems, cares, anxieties and cast them on our Lord. Do just that, and stay even ten or fifteen minutes afterwards to offer your thanksgiving for all that He has to offer you. If you find yourself not getting anything out of Mass, consider first what you are giving of yourself each Sunday (how am I preparing, participating, praying?). Our Lord is not a burglar, He is a guest. He will not force His way into your life but will only show His power when welcomed. Feel free to attend my talk on July 17th concerning this topic titled "How to Get More out of Mass".

Called By God

Today's scriptures invite us to listen to two calls. The first is the call issued by the LORD to the prophet Amos, the "shepherd and a dresser of sycamores" (Amos 7:14). The second is the call the Lord Jesus issued to the Twelve, whom he sent out "two by two" (Mark 6:7). These faithful people responded to the call, prophesying and preaching to the people to whom they had been sent. Each of us received a call when we were baptized. The second reading invites us to ponder that call as we are reminded that we are chosen in Christ and that, in love, God "destined us for adoption" (Ephesians 1:5). As adopted daughters and sons of God we are called to bring the presence of Christ into our marriages, families, schools, and places of work. Let us be inspired today to say yes to the call we hear once again through God's living word.

St. Vincent News

Sr. Joan's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

The readings at Mass this weekend tell about people who receive a mission. In both cases the people with the mission are rather ordinary. Amos is a shepherd and tree dresser, the apostles are mostly fishermen. These people show us examples of how God works through ordinary people. God works through us.

We might think the world is a mess, with so many people doing cruel and unjust things and that we have no power to do anything about it. We don't even want to listen to the news. God is telling us something different in the readings today. It is true that the only person we can change is ourselves, but have you noticed that when you act in a calm manner, the people around you, even if they are upset, will calm down. I often tell the kids, it is a lot easier to be good if you run around with good friends.

Sometimes God calls us to stand up for what is right, like Amos. Or maybe God is calling you to spread his Good News like the apostles. This week as you take time to listen to God, listen with an open heart. God may be calling you to do something for him.

Sr. Joan

We joyfully share our gifts to nourish the community. ---- St. Vincent Purpose Statement

Warning - Spam Email

Beware if you get an email saying it is from Fr. Mike and it asks for money. Fr. Mike will never ask for money via email. Someone is going around maliciously creating email addresses that appear to be from priests, but are actually from someone else. It is tricky to fight because, in these cases, the priests' emails are not hacked; rather, bogus accounts are being created. Be careful and know that Fr. Mike will never ask for money or other things via email.
