From the Desk of Fr. Mike

Dear Friends,

I hope you all had a most blessed Thanksgiving last Thursday. What a joy to celebrate God's goodness. We are very blessed.

This Sunday (Nov. 25) at 5:00 p.m. I will give a "Last Things" Presentation downstairs at St. Joseph in the cafeteria for one hour. As we close this month of All Souls, I want to reflect about the following things. It will be a great time. Please make sure and come! These are the topics:

- Last Rites
- Anointing of the Sick
- Apostolic Pardon
- Extreme Unction
- Viaticum
- Cremation
- Happy Death
- Pre-planning for your funeral
- Info about bequests, endowments, etc.

Notice the new hymnals in the pews this weekend. They cost more than the old ones, but the old ones we used to have to replace every single year since they have dates in them. These new hymnals will not need to be replaced if we take good care of them. Please take good care of them. Envelopes will remain in the pews for you if you would like to get a book in honor or memory of someone. I got four myself. $25 a piece.

It is hard to believe Advent starts this coming weekend. Can you believe it? It is one of my favorite times, which is strange because it is in many ways the "season of patience" and I'm not always sure I have that particular virtue.

The Men's Retreat is Nov. 29 - Dec. 1 at St. Meinrad. I am very excited! Deacon Tom and I are leading this retreat and it will be such a good time. We have a good group of men coming. Pray for them!

Nonetheless, Advent will begin in a week. The perfect way to start the season is Lessons and Carols, which will take place on Sunday, December 2 at 3:30 p.m. I love this service. It is a time to reflect on the story of our salvation, from the Old Testament to the end. It is wonderful. This year, several of the carols will be singalong style!! I will make an exception to the no Christmas light rule during Advent and we will have the lights lit during the Lessons and Carols service. Please come.

There will be a Ministry Fair after all Masses next weekend. There are so many ways to get involved in the life of this parish. Come and see how you can get more involved!

Penance service at St. Vincent is at 7:00 p.m. on Wednesday, December 5. St. Joseph folks are welcome to attend also. I will post the other Batesville deanery penance services in the bulletin soon.

The Christmas in the Creche school program is on December 10 and 11, 6:30 p.m. each night in the gym. I wrote this play together with my friend Fr. Jonathan Meyer. I'm worried it is a touch too long, but the story is too beautiful to leave too much out! As I write this, there are a couple tickets left but not many. They will probably be gone by the time of this bulletin's publication. I am very excited for this!!

Our Lady of Guadalupe celebrations are on December 12. More details coming.

I cannot remember as I write this what else I have to say.....I know there is something! Oh well! Lots of couples getting married lately. We pray for them.

My love and prayers!
Fr. Mike

St. Joseph Ministry Fair

Please join St. Joseph's Ministries in the cafeteria after Mass on Saturday, December 1st and Sunday, December 2nd to learn more about the Ministries' functions and how you can join them. You will also be able to sign up for online giving.

November 25, 2018 - Sunday Collection

Due to the early deadline for this weekend's bulletin, financial information for the weekend of November 18th will be published in the December 2nd Bulletin.

Thanks for your generosity! It is amazing what God can do when we are generous. Please be sure to remember St. Joseph Parish in your will!

St. Vincent News

Sr. Joan's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King. What is the Kingdom of God? The Kingdom of God is a space. It exists in every home where parents and children love each other. It exists in every country that cares for its weak and vulnerable. It exists in every parish that reaches out to the needy.

The Kingdom of God is a time. It happens whenever someone feeds a hungry person or shelters a homeless person, or shows care to a neglected person. It happens whenever people join in the struggle to overcome poverty, or pass on the faith.

The Kingdom of God is in the past (in the life and work of Jesus of Nazareth). It is in the present (in the work of the Church and the efforts of many others to create a world of goodness and justice). It is in the future (at the end of time when all will be renewed).

The Kingdom of God is a condition. Its symptoms are love, justice and peace.

Jesus Christ is King! This week as we take time to pray, let us pray that God may "free all the world to rejoice in his peace, to glory in his justice, to live in his love." We pray this for our families and for the world.

Sr. Joan

We joyfully share our gifts to nourish the community. ---- St. Vincent Purpose Statement

Christ Is King

On the final Sunday of the liturgical year we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King. It's easy to understand today's scriptures as events that happened long ago and far away, or predictions that will come true somewhere, some day. But they invite us to claim Christ as our King here and now. Jesus' words to Pilate in the Gospel remind us that his kingdom transcends time and place. And the prophecies from Daniel and Revelation give us reason to be faithful to Christ our King right here and right now.

By concluding the year with this feast we are proclaiming our faith that Jesus Christ is the one and only King over all seasons, all peoples, and all of creation. No matter what nation we belong to or what language we speak, he "has made us into a kingdom" (Revelation 1:6)—one people united in love and peace for all eternity.
