From the Desk of Fr. Mike

Dear Friends,

Today begins Advent, a sacred and holy time in the Church year. I have put a ton of announcements in this bulletin, so my column is short.

But please read the whole bulletin!

I do want to say thanks: for a wonderful Parish Mission, for your contributions to the United Catholic Appeal, for dedicating hymnals, for volunteering your time, for taking part in so many wonderful activities around here, and for your prayers.

My love and prayers!
Fr. Mike

Sr. Joan's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

Happy Advent! It is a beautiful time of the church year. The readings for this Sunday's Mass and weekday Masses give us much to pray with. I hope you will take advantage of the little blue books from St. Vincent. Everyone is welcome to take one until they are gone. Also, I am sure that Fr. Mike will tell you about the booklet that several of us prayed about and put together for you.

Personally, I am not in very good physical shape right now. I have several things going on at the same time, most of which have been a surprise to me. Please pray for me that I can get back to good health by Christmas or shortly after. I usually don't put God on a schedule, but I am already tired of feeling so awful. It makes me think of all the people that I have ministered to and who have been sick for years. I have been praying for all of you and offering up my suffering for the good of all of us. I hope to be back soon.

Sr. Joan

The Promise of Justice

We are in fairly good company when we ask God for justice. Often enough we hear and agree with the lament of the people of Israel asking God why the wicked prosper. However, when we call out for justice, we usually want someone to get his or her comeuppance. God's justice is something other than this, of course. God's justice comprises a wonderful rightness between God and humankind.

Today, Jeremiah looks ahead to a time when a just one will sprout from the shorn-off stump of Jesse of the house and family of David. Life was not fair in Jeremiah's time. Israel's kings held the promise of God's fidelity, but it was difficult to see how God's promise could be realized through them.

Nevertheless, Jeremiah lifts his voice and announces that the Promised One will come. Luke's Gospel echoes that announcement, and Paul is filled with sturdy encouragement. And so Advent begins with a promise.
