Pastor’s Column

Dear Parishioners,

Some folks have noticed that the bulletin has had lots of photos lately. This is because a picture is worth 1000 words! What a blessing that we have so much going on here at St. Joe’s.

In my homily last weekend, I commented about the power of working “side by side” on various common projects in the parish. I noted that the annual report you should have received by now is simply a nice big collection of our common projects -- done in the name of the Lord -- from the last year. It is nice to be a parish family.

Being a community, a family is an important part of being a parishioner. We are really just one big family here. Each has a job to do. No Catholic should ever just go to this or that church because they like the building or the priest or the liturgy. No. That’s a rather consumeristic mindset, don’t you think? Instead, we are family and have been drawn together by God! We stick together! Every family has some disputes here or there, differences of opinions, an odd kid here or there. But we’re family!! We serve together, pray together, learn together, celebrate together.

Have a great and happy week!

Blessings and prayers,
Fr. Mike

Congratulations Megan!

Congratulations to Megan, baptized last Sunday by Fr. Mike!

Congratulations Yadira!

Congratulations to Yadira, the second to last from this past year’s RCIA class to receive her sacraments! Congratulations!!

Pumpkin Thank You

Help Teach Your Kids to Tithe

God has a lot to say about money (there are 2300 Bible verses about money), so let me make a quick comment about our collection.

Most of us are familiar with the “ten percent tithe” in the Bible. Among other places, this comes from Deuteronomy 14:22, which reads: “Make an offering of ten percent, a tithe, of all the produce which grows in your fields year after year.”

That’s a pretty good deal because God gives us everything, and asks only for 10% back! It’s okay to go above and beyond that, too, but it shouldn’t be 1%. Some people make so much that even 1% seems like a lot. Make it 10%.

I think it’s a lovely idea for us to teach our kids how to tithe. Please make sure your child, grandchild, or godchild knows to give God 10% back of whatever money they have coming in -- whether that’s from allowance, a part-time job, etc. This will help them in the future in a lot of ways! Tithing is a spiritual practice.

Thanks,
Fr. Mike

Dispensing of Broken Sacramentals at St. Joe

There is a new plastic box under the Jesus statue in the narthex where you can put items that have been blessed (sacramentals) but that are broken or no longer usable. Fr. Mike will take these items every now and again and burn and bury them. Remember that you can never throw anything away that has been blessed.

St. Joe Parish Library

A book can change your life! All are welcome to borrow a book from our library anytime. Please return the book when finished.

Getting Engaged at St. Joe?

Remember to book the church early on and to book the church before the reception venue. Please remember that we don’t do weddings on festival weekend. Most importantly, remember that a Catholic seeking marriage is REQUIRED by Church law to get married in the church by a priest in order for his/her marriage to be considered valid in the eyes of God and his Church.

Remember This

PRAY YOUR ROSARY EVERY DAY!!!
Sometimes You Just Have To Be Goofy

Fr. Mike’s Bookshelf

This week I would like to tell you that one book on my bookshelf is this wonderful Goosebumps book - Stay Out of the Basement.

I remember loving these books as a kiddo. Then, when I was a priest at OLG, there happened to be a bookfair. There I found a whole big Goosebumps series.

I started reading them! I know, I know, I’m a grown man. But there’s something about these books!! I felt like a kid again.

When I was a kid, I loved October so much. What a joyful season. I loved Halloween. I love the spooks. I loved it all!

And I still do. So it’s no surprise, I suppose, that I like these Goosebumps books:)

Fr. Mike Reflects on a Far Worse Virus
COVID-19 is real. But there is a FAR worse virus out there that destroys FAR MORE. It doesn’t just have the ability to hurt your physical health like the covid -- nope, this virus seeks to destroy your soul and your salvation. We call it sin. Jesus said, ‘Even as you have done it to the least of these, you have done it to me!’ Keep doing!”

Dinner Before Bedtime

As you are probably aware, Luke Williams and Judge Charlie O’Conner have formed a nonprofit organization in conjunction with Melissa O’Conner from the Youth Program.

The mission is to feed children who don’t have anything to eat before bedtime.

This is a community organization. The monetary donations have been fantastic and we will continue to raise money. The more we have the more we can feed the most vulnerable......the children in Shelbyville.

As a board we are reaching out to all the churches in our community to help with the logistics of delivering these meals.

I have volunteered to manage the schedule of volunteers. This is a very important part of this mission been accomplished successfully. Please consider helping us........we need a number of volunteers.

My contact details:
- Cell: 419-345-6837
- Email: delaneyclare1@gmail.com

God Bless you,
Clare Delaney

Sr. Joan’s Corner

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend’s Gospel tells a very strange story of a banquet. Often in the Gospel of Matthew the Kingdom of God is represented by a banquet or dinner in which all are invited. In this case, some of the invited are uninterested in the banquet. Others make light of it and go do other things; still others ridicule and abuse those who bring the invitation. So, the King sends his servants to go out into the streets to invite everyone, good and bad alike.

Eventually, the King spots a guest not wearing a wedding garment and the poor guy is cast out into the darkness. This seems somewhat vindictive. Why invite people to a banquet if you are going to reject them? Are not all called and welcomed? So, why are some people who are already in the promised banquet-land excluded for the feeble reason that they are improperly dressed? I think it is because they cannot believe that God (the King) loves them so much as to invite them to the banquet. They can’t believe that they are there. They hold onto their sins, their self-doubt, their feelings of unworthiness, their shame and cannot accept their Baptismal Garment, which is Christ. St. Paul tells us that if we are baptized in Christ, we must be clothed in him. It is in Christ’s love that must be the clothing we need to wear. It is available to every person.

This week as we talk with Jesus, the Christ, let us thank him for inviting us to the banquet. Also, we might think of the feeble excuses we sometimes give for not accepting his invitations and ask for his help to overcome them.

Sr. Joan

Prayer for the Elections

God of our nation, we ask for your guidance as we approach our election season. Send your Spirit of wisdom to enlighten our choices as we select men and women for key government roles.

Give us hearts that promote the welfare of every person, regardless of race, religion, or age; make us seekers of the common good and champions of unity and peace. Through our discernment, may we look beyond political loyalties to stand with each person as brother and sister, promoting basic human rights and dignity for all.

Help us to seek truth and Christian values in our candidates and in ourselves. May our vote be a testimony to the strength of our faith in Jesus Christ, who chose to identify with all humanity, especially the poor and marginalized.

Recreate us, gracious God; may our country humbly assume its leadership role in this world, promoting the values of your kingdom and the reign of justice for all people everywhere, as you intended. Amen.
